

First Library

- √ I can use a soft voice in the library
- √ I can do constructive visiting in the library
- √ I can enter and leave the library quietly
- √ I can replace materials where they belong
- √ I can use a shelf marker correctly
- √ I can replace chairs and other items in their original location
- √ I can use a bookmarker
- √ I can use a wastebasket
- √ I can have clean hands in the library
- √ I can name three good places at home and school to keep library materials to prevent damage
- √ I can report tears and damage to the librarian for repair
- √ I can turn the pages of a book from the top right-hand corner
- √ I can support both covers when using a book
- √ I can name book care rules
- √ I can show the cover of the book and what it does
- √ I can show the spine of the book and what it does
- √ I can show the title page and the title, author, and illustrator
- √ I can tell the citizenship rules
- √ I can tell what fiction means
- √ I can tell what nonfiction means
- √ I can spell fiction
- √ I can spell nonfiction
- √ I can show where the easy books are located
- √ I can have materials at school on time
- √ I can put books in alphabetical order
- √ I can do a simple research project